

Third Annual Fraud and Forensic Accounting Education Conference
Hosted by Georgia Southern University
On May 28-30, 2009
Atlanta, Georgia

Porter Keadle Moore, LLP, in conjunction with Georgia Southern University, will be sponsoring the Third Annual Fraud and Forensic Accounting Education Conference, to be held at the J.W. Marriott in the Buckhead area of Atlanta, Georgia. The conference will begin at 8:00am on Thursday, May 28, and conclude at Noon on Saturday, May 30, 2009.

Based on past participant feedback and consistent with the conferences held in Savannah (2007) and Charleston (2008), the purpose of this conference will continue to assist educators, practitioners, and students in developing their academic and professional skills in specialized fields of fraud examination and forensic accounting. This 20 hour CPE conference program will be designed to include:

- Nationally-prominent keynote speakers
- 100-minute general sessions with topics of interest to all participants
- 75-minute breakout sessions presented by fraud and forensic accounting professionals on a variety of basic to advanced-level topics
- 50-minute breakout sessions presented by academics and practitioners regarding useful education tips, tools, and techniques effective in providing training in fraud and forensic accounting
- Breaks, meals, and social events to provide networking opportunities

Call for Papers and Participation – Best Practices in Fraud and Forensic Accounting

We invite you to participate in the conference by submitting either an academic or a practitioner paper and making a presentation. Such papers will be considered for publication in the Journal of Forensic Studies in Accounting and Business.
