

Construction Accounting and Law Conference

Cobb Galleria

March 6, 2008

A one day conference is being brought to you through the collaborative efforts of representatives from Georgia Southern University's Center for Fraud and Forensic Studies in Accounting and Business, Lundstrom LLC, Shapiro Fussell Wedge & Martin LLP, and the Georgia Chapter of the Construction Financial Management Association. The conference will be held at the Cobb Galleria Centre, within walking distance of shopping, restaurants and entertainment, and located at I-75 and I-285 in Northwest Atlanta.

Who should attend?

Construction industry professionals and anyone with construction industry clients, including:

CEO's, CFO's, Controllers,
Attorneys, Accountants,
Surety Underwriters,
Contractors, Subcontractors, and Construction Industry Specialists.

The purpose of this conference is to assist practitioners in the construction industry by providing information and discussion relative to legal, financial, and fraud issues. Speakers will explore, analyze, and earn 8 hours of continuing education credit on the following topics:

- Immigration Issues
- Fraud in the Construction Industry (overview)
- Construction Fraud Schemes (and warning signs)
- Business Planning & Succession Planning
- Fraud Investigations (the process)
- Defending and Proving Claims
- Risk Management: Insurance Companies and Setting Premiums

Registration will begin at 7:30 AM with a continental breakfast. The program will begin at 8:00 AM. Lunch will be provided and a luncheon speaker will present an informative presentation on Immigration Issues. Several breaks during the day will allow everyone opportunities to network with fellow professionals. The day will conclude at about 5:00 PM with a panel discussion involving the day's speakers.
